<td>He raised a concern about the LAC not having any knowledge or control over the symposium speakers being told that their registration fees would be covered by PAA. The symposium committee did not communicate with the LAC, and the LAC ended up covering some symposium speakers registrations. He indicated the LAC should not be paying any symposium speaker expenses.</td>

<td>Craig Yencho reported that there were 185 registrants at the meeting. To his relief, their contracted room night tally has been met. They raised $42,000 in sponsorship. For accompanying persons, two 15 passenger vans are available to shuttle them around. Golf and the fishing trips were cancelled due to lack of interest.</td>

| b. | Craig Yencho gave the final statistics for the meeting in Wilmington, NC. They had 185 attendees, from 10 countries, 7 provinces and 21 US states. The meeting ended in the black by about $8,500, with $3,500 donated to PAA and the rest covering gifts, PAA President fees and insular expenses by Craig Yencho’s program. Larry Hiller stressed that LAC sponsors should address their cheques to the LAC and not to PAA.
There is no update on the status of the manuscripts from the 2011 sweet potato workshop. Craig received a round of applause. |

<td>Rob Davidson reported that the 2012 PAA Annual Meeting will be in Denver, CO at the Crowne Plaza Denver International Airport Convention Center on August 12-16, 2012. The meeting will follow a traditional format. The LAC does not require a cash advance. The committee is already in place. A grower-oriented session, possibly about virus management is being discussed. Fund raising is already underway.</td>

<td>Réal Brière and Laure Boulet reported they have a conference coordinator in place. The meeting will be held at the Chateau Laurier, Quebec City, Quebec, Canada on July 28 to August 1, 2013. Most of the city is bilingual, English is not a problem. A mini-symposium on cyst nematode may be included. An agricultural tour is planned. The barbecue will be on the tour day. The EC will work with the 2013 LAC on planning 100th anniversary celebration activities. President Campbell offered to distribute postcards advertising the 2013 PAA meeting at the Potato EXPO in January 2013. A poster dedicated to the 100th anniversary of PAA should be displayed at the Potato EXPO.</td>
